Detroit, June 28.—The Tigers took to-day's game from the Naps, 6 to 4.

Four hits off Blandly in the first inning, coupled with two errors, gave the locals a four-run lead. In the second half of the sixth, with two down and two on, Graneley hit a long one to center which would have been a home run had not High, after a long run, pulled it down and ended the game. Score: Detroit, 6; Cleveland, 4.

MAJOR LEAGUES' SHIFTS;
LEADERS KEEP PLACES

Cincinnati Hits Toboggan Slide in National League, While Chicago Goes to Runner-Up Post.

PIRATES HOLD TO THIRD PLACE

Dave Robertson's Stickwork Responsible for Giants' Present Lead. Cobb's Absence From Game Causes Detroit to Take Drop.

New York, June 28.—Notable changes occurred among first division clubs of both the major leagues last week. The shifts displaced neither of the leaders, however. In fact, New York, in the National, and the Philadelphia, in the American, improved their ranking, while clubs behind them were wrestling for position.

When percentages were compiled after the week's play had ended "New York-Chicago-Pittsburgh" were the club names in the National League reading from the top down.

Cincinnati, starting on the downward track in the New York series, after keeping far up in the race nearly half the season, continued on the toboggan after reaching home, and up to to-day had lost seven straight games, dropping to fourth place.

Chicago, winning six straight, rose to the place of runner-up, which the Reds had held, passing both Pittsburgh and St. Louis. The Cardinals being crowded out of the first division. Only the Pirates stuck to the place they occupied at the start of the season.

Comparatively comfortable as is the Giants' present lead, they have no assurance of holding it unless they play better than in the Boston series. The Cardinals, who appear to be the best of the season so far in all-round play, have been a marked factor in such success as they have had.

The recent Cubs' slump comes due to the fact that they were matched against the dropping Reds. It remains to be seen how much of their advance will be maintained. Pittsburgh, who are out of the game with injuries, the team is confident of taking the big end of both series on the home grounds this week.

Secretary Bradley announced last night that P. M. Snyder, a first baseman, would report to Ryan to-day, and would surely be in the line-up which faces the Cardinals on Monday.

Another player whom the local fans will have a chance to pass judgment on to-day is Keefe, from the Winston-Salem Club of the Carolina Association, who played the last two games of the week. This youngster accepted the challenge of the Cardinals and is expected to hit acceptably the rap made by the injury to Newton, who, however, will probably return to his old place next week.

Besides the two series, which will have an important bearing on the pennant race, there will be a meeting of particular interest to fans this week. That is, the series between the Cardinals and the Washingtons, which will be played at the Hotel Richmond on Thursday to discuss several important matters, and which will be given 50 per cent of moving-picture receipts.

Other matters may properly come before the meeting, which is expected to bring the Baltimore franchise in the National League to Richmond. It will be on hand to lay their proposition before the league moguls.

There should be a large crowd at the opener to-day. In accordance with previous announcements, Secretary Bradley will permit all children to pass through the gates on Monday afternoon without cost. The girls will be taken to the grandstand and the boys to the bleachers. This new rule will be in effect for the balance of the season, excepting Labor Day.

That week Thursday will be designated as children's day. New children will arrive here to-day, and will be taken to the grandstand and the boys to the bleachers. This new rule will be in effect for the balance of the season, excepting Labor Day.

TWO NEW MEN IN COLTS' LINE-UP IN TO-DAY'S GAME

F. M. Snyder, a Heavy-Hitting First Baseman, and Shortstop Keefe.

Chipped up by the successes of last week, and with two new acquisitions in the line-up, Ray Ryan and his new frisky Colts will be with us for the next six days, taking on Norfolk for a three-game series of the first half.
